

Daily Racing Form

VOL. IV. NO. 160.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

W. OVERTON'S KENWOOD STAKES.

Five thousand persons saw the Washington Park races, which were run on the fastest of tracks. The weather was oppressively warm. Twenty-one bookmakers "cut in." Dunois started for the first time this season, and "large packages" going on, the price was knocked to 7 to 10. "Skeets" Martin must have known he had a good horse under him, as he took things leisurely and trailed along, gradually gaining and only coming to the front at the last sixteenth, where Cash Day was at once disposed off. Ryan's horse won as he pleased. Millie M. led to the turn for home. Albert S. made his usual bluff, and Miss Casey hung on to the last eighth. Muskalonge caught and passed the fast dying Cash Day close in.

Pat Dunne believes in the Martin family, and W. was on Survivor, H. on Prince Harry, the pair being always favorite at 4 to 5. Survivor at once went to the front to an excellent start and was not headed. Galathee (named after the first production of the French poet, Florian,) challenged at the bleaching board, but Survivor was away. Stamina, a 200 to 1 shot, owned by Duke & Wishard, closed rapidly at the finish and got the place. No bets on the colt were discoverable on the sheets of the big bookmakers, although when Stamina's owners were leagued with J. J. McCafferty the latter never overlooked having a bet on the long shots of the stable. The finish behind the winner was an exciting one, Tulla Fonso and Volvotheren being close up. The latter was played in the out-of-town pool rooms, and for a place was considered to be a "rosy thing."

The Kenwood Stakes, worth $2,190 to the winner, for 2-year-old colts, was a spirited betting affair. Smith & Perry opened Formero at the longest price, 3 to 1, and the block man was almost mobbed, but yelling, "I will give you a lot of it," kept the price up for some minutes. King Barleycorn advanced in price as did W. Overton. On the last race Schorr's horse looked to hold Sink's safe, but T. Burns instead of Thorpe was up and it was remembered that there was a long drive at the finish. The outsiders were rejected, although there was a quiet tip from the stable on Hardy Pardee. King Barleycorn showed no propensity to break and delayed the start. When the flag fell Fardel went out accompanied by W. Overton and around the turn Gold Fox was third. W. Overton won in a gallop. The fight for place was a good one, Hardy Pardee securing it and paying his backers 4 to 1 place and 2 to 1 to show. King Barleycorn, in trying to get through was cut off more than once. Col. M. Lewis Clark thought that Leigh's horse had very little chance to win. Gold Fox found the distance a sixteenth too long.

Miss Gussie in the fourth race was not a correct 7 to 5 shot, she being quickly beaten although off second to Donna Rita, who led to the middle of the back stretch. Here Boanerges, always well up, went on about his business and the farther he went the greater distance was he in the lead, winning pulled up in record time. Judge Denny, last at the quarter, got to fourth position but there shot his bolt. The Roman, apparently quite out of the race three-quarters from home, finished with a rush beating Timemaker, who had been ridden a waiting race.

Cass Sloan won the last race with the 20 to 1 chance Topmast.

Sutton led to the last quarter, Al Fresco third. Clawson up the back stretch evidently had orders to wait, and Morte Fonso was away behind the leaders. Charley Christy was hustling in front at the last eighth, and here Morte Fonso almost reached the front rank; but along came Topmast, shooting by as if the others were tied, and beat them.

Sam Hildreth & Co. and F. W. Doss were each fined $100 for improper registration of the ownership of respectively Bellicoso and Hugh Penny. The facts were developed by the squabble over the selling race won by Hugh Penny, July 1, Bellicoso running second. The judges also suspended the pickaninny Rose for the balance of the meeting, his offence being a rough ride on Facade which affected the chances of April's Lady.

"Ed" Wolf, a big bug in real estate matters at St. Louis, was at the track. He says that St. Louis racing is patronized better than ever, and the crowd is never less than 3,500. The bookmakers in number average seventeen.

"Tobe" Broderick, of pacing horse fame, was out advertising his crab meat supper to be held at Sunnyside tonight.

Martin Mullen, the crack amateur billiardist of Cleveland, arrived in town yesterday on his way to the "copper country."

Harry Kuhl has advices of the incoming of the following stables: Lew Marion from St. Louis with two head; R. Respass from Latonia with eight head; R. H. Bronaugh & Co. from Latonia with Kittie B. and four others.

George W. Bennett of Memphis, whose large racing stable has shrunk to a trio of horses now running at St. Louis, passed through Chicago on his way from the East to his home and paid a visit to the track.

The bookmakers spread out and occupied nearly twice as much space in the betting ring as on the Derby Day. George Rose and Leo Mayer drew in on the "dead line."

The long bar at the north end of the betting has been abandoned, and a smaller one substituted near the end books.

Sam Summerfield, with a few thousand to the good, is said to be the largest winning bookmaker.

Riley Grannan bet on Miss Gussie. Ed Corrigan, who has been at Lexington since Tuesday, returned yesterday morning.

It would prevent much "rubbernecking" and confusion in the betting ring were a jockey board placed in its center and well above the heads of such as desire to copy the names of the riders.

The conference of Washington Park officials spoken of yesterday had no significance according to J. W. Kelsey, stating that the judges stand was simply used as a spot for gossip on account of the breeze.

The watermelon man did a thriving business at Garfield Park some years ago. He was choked off because of the kick of the man having the beer privilege. His reinstatement at Washington Park will be applauded by the public.

The Millbrook and Fleetwood yearlings will arrive in Chicago Saturday morning and will be on exhibition at Tattersall's Saturday, Sunday and Monday. There are some particularly nice youngsters in the lot, by Patron, Blue Eyes, Aintree, Order, Wagner, Cavalier, Hanover, Michael, Portland and George Kinney.

In his race yesterday, Boanerges established a new record for a mile and three sixteenths. The previous record was 1:58½, made by Henry Young, 4, 108, at Washington Park July 14, 1894.

The leather covered, linen lettered index edition will be on sale Thursday. The early publication of the book is due to the need of the public because of the Washington Park Club meeting.

Winner—B. c. by St. George—Belle Loring. Start straggling. Won driving. Acre was best and lucky. He is a fast but uncertain colt. Ella Daly is an acrobat and probably likes the track. She ran a surprising race. Abingdon cannot stay and was killed off pacemaking with Spinner and Daly. He got a bad ride. Spinner is of little account. Siffleur tired badly after seven furlongs of good running. He should improve. Chalmers sulked throughout. He requires a strong jockey and ran a very bad race.

Winner—B. c. by Himyar—Grace Lee. Start good. Won easily. Hilee was best and well handled, saved ground on the stretch turn and finished strong. The colt shows steady improvement. Gary ran a fine race and is a good looker. Watch him. Tendresse is not of much account. She quit badly at the finish. St. Clair showed a lot of speed and ran in promising fashion. He stopped in the pinch. Camotop is far from ready and will favor a route. Partout had no speed. Roysterer was short. He had speed and is a good looker.

Scratched—Savory, 107.

Winner—Br. c. by Gallantry—Zitella. Start good. Won handsily. Sir Gawain ran a much improved race. He appeared to be beaten on the stretch turn, but came again in the gamest fashion. Swiftmas was none too well handled in the last quarter. He was a very good horse in the race. Glorian trailed too long. He closed a big gap in the last half. This fellow is good. George Boyd was badly ridden, too. He sulked. He can do better, is in very good form, and likes the mud best. Previous is growing worse. He needs a rest. Ruby showed a lot of speed. Watch her among horses of a lower class.

Scratched—Aurum, 114.

7002 FOURTH RACE—3-4 Mile. $800 Added. 3-year-olds und upward. High Weight Handicap.

Time, 12½, 24½, 36½, 48½, 1:02½, 1:15.

Winner—Br. m. 5, by Amphion—Starlight. Start good. Won driving. Lambert appeared to be outrun in the first half, but came the last part very gamely. She should do well over a longer route. Van Antwerp liked this track and ran a good race. He was used too much or he might have won. He finished strong as it was. Lady Mitchell appeared to be galloping the first half, but quit in the last quarter. She is good. Was short. Slasher is of little account. Billali has speed and favors sloppy going. He hasn't any class.

Scratched—Isidor, 140; Tabouret, 114; Endeavor, 98.

Overweights—Van Antwerp, 1 pound.

Winner—Br. c. by Watercross—Madrid. Marblehead was galloping throughout. He is a very fair colt and will improve. He tried to bear out on the stretch turn. Dr. Parker was in trouble after a half mile. He is only a sprinter. He stopped badly in the last quarter. Subject was short and pulled up the last furlong. He is a good looker. Russella Walden seems to be of no account.

Winner—B. g. 3. by Eolus—Vivacity.

Start good. Won driving. Athanas awoke with a start. He was best and ran a surprising race. He finished with extreme gameness after setting his own hot pace. Dolando is very good. He moved too late, was messed about generally and finished strong. Burlesque II stopped unaccountably when appearing to be winning on the stretch turn. He had a world of speed and will improve. Maceo ran his race. Octave has not much class. Neither has Dude, but he was probably short today.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Florist—Becky B.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third hard driven. Dunois was far the best or he could not have won. Martin got off last and had to run around the field. He used judgment and rated the horse well. Dunois is in fine form and can be tabbed to beat better ones. Muskalonge, after much interference, found an opening in the stretch and finished like a lion. This race should sharpen him. Cash Day weakened at the very end. He is an honest horse and was hard and well ridden. Miss Casey looked dangerous in the stretch, but died away near the finish. She cannot beat Dunois' kind. Millie M. had a lot of speed, but lacked the class to stay when the pinch came.
Overweights—Miss Casey, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Strathmore—Ella F.
Post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won in a mild drive; second and third driving hard. Survivor was the best. He got away well and was lucky. He seems to be a loafer and Martin had to hustle him sharply through the stretch. Judging from the way he won, he is more than an ordinary colt. Stamina had a lot of bad luck; considering this, his performance was above the average. Galathea, off none too well, was lucky to get through on the far turn. He was carried wide on the stretch turn and lost quite a bit of ground there. Tulane ran as if short. He looked dangerous when straightened away but went to pieces at the finish. Watch him. Throw Volyoth's race out. She was tangled up at the start and never got straightened out. Merops was hard ridden all the way. Tulla Fonso had early speed. Her notch is five furlongs in about 1:02.
Scratched—Princess Murphy, 108.

Winner—B. c. by Belvidere—Peninah.
Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won easily. It was a long hard drive for the place. W Overton was the best, nicely ridden and ran a cracking good race. He is a youngster of class and in rare form. Burns agrees with the colt. He behaved well at the post. He could have gone to the front at any time. Hardy Pardee raced well. He came with a rush at the end and stood a long drive gamely. He was interfered with on the far turn but not enough to cause damage. Formero, off in the rear, began slowly. He hardly ran his race. It was Holland's first start and he ran a good race. Watch him. He is well bred and seems to have quality. Gold Fox is fast. He tired badly in the closing drive. King Barleycorn bore in all the way and it was almost impossible for Turner to keep him off the fence. This was nowhere near the colt's race and it must be thrown out. Lobos had plenty of speed, too. Watch him. Burns pulled up in one of the breakaways, spoiling the start and was given a suspension of one week.
Scratched—Olinthus, 118; Ailyar, 118; Jolly Roger, 118; Facade, 115.

Winner—Ch. c. 4, by Spendthrift—Llandrino.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; the next four were driving hard. Boanerges was a great horse. He went to the front on call and simply galloped all the way. Had he been extended he could have run much faster. The Roman trailed the bunch all the way, but finished with a rush. He ran a good race and can be tabbed for early action. Timemaker was nursed and finished strong and true. This is the best showing he has made over a distance of ground. Judge Denny hung a trifle at the end. He is in winning form, but was outclassed. Donna Rita was pumped out chasing Boanerges. The time was a new American record.

Winner—Ch. g. 5, by Topgallant—Essay.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; second, third and fourth were under keen pressure. Topmast was best as the race was run. Sloan held him far out of it early and used his speed after the leaders had wasted theirs. It was a queerly run race, there being little or no pace the early part of it. There was a smart middle half, though. Sutton galloped in front all the way, but went all to pieces after going about seven furlongs. Charley Christy made his run too soon. He looked all over a winner on the turn, but had nothing left to stall off Topmast's rush. Al Fresco stopped and came again in the stretch. He about ran his race. Clawson was little or no help to Morte Fonso. He is a heavy-headed horse and must have strong handling. Throw this race out, but keep close tab on him. He is in good form.
Scratched—Bellicoso, 109.
Overweights—Al Fresco, 2 pounds.
